

San Francisco Chamber Music Society: A Concert of Music from France (January 10, 1977), 1 of 2

Identifier

SFC.1977.01.10.A

Description

Pianist Janet Guggenheim organized this unique tribute to 20th century Gallic masters. Works heard included a little known sonata for trumpet and cello by Yves Chardon, Maurice Ravel's "Piano Sonatine", Marcel Delannoy's "Rapsodie", Jean Françaix's sonata for trumpet and piano, and Vincent d'Indy's "Trio" for clarinet, cello, and piano. The concert, which was sponsored by the San Francisco Chamber Music Society was recorded on January 10, 1977, at the Fireman's Fund Theater in San Francisco. The performers, all noted Bay Area musicians, were Janet Guggenheim on piano, Laurie McGaw on trumpet, Robert Sayre, cello, and Donald Carroll on saxophone and clarinet.

Musical Selections

Sonata, Op. 21, for trumpet and cello (1958) (14:51) / Yves Chardon -- Piano Sonatine (1903-05) (10:21) / Maurice Ravel -- Rapsodie, for trumpet, alto saxophone, cello, and piano (1934) (9:19) / Marcel Delannoy -- Sonatine, for trumpet and piano (1950-52) (6:36) / Jean Françaix

Artists

San Francisco Chamber Music Society (features)

Chardon, Yves, 1902- (features)

Ravel, Maurice, 1875-1937 (features)

Delannoy, Marcel, 1898-1962 (features)

Françaix, Jean, 1912-1997 (features)

Guggenheim, Janet Goodman (features)

McGaw, Laurie (Musician) (features)

Carroll, Don (Clarinetist) (features)

Sayre, Robert (features)