

Ode To Gravity: Interview with Marin Alsop

Identifier

OTG.1992.04.06

Object Type

Analog Audio

Musical Selections

Grand Duo [excerpt] (1988) / Lou Harrison

Description

Charles Amirkhanian interviews Marin Alsop, conductor of the Eugene Symphony Orchestra, Long Island Symphony, and her own group Concordia, which has commissioned a number of works by contemporary composers. At the time of this interview in 1992, she had just become the new director of the Cabrillo Music Festival. Marin Alsop studied under Leonard Bernstein about whom she shares some of her memories. Although born in New York, she has worked on the West Coast for many years and is very sympathetic to West Coast composers. often performing their works.

People

- Amirkhanian, Charles (features)
- Alsop, Marin (features)
- Harrison, Lou, 1917-2003 (features)
- Davies, Dennis Russell (features)
- Tecco, Romuald (features)

Related Collection

OMA.COL003.KPFA

KPFA-FM Music Dept.

Page

Ode To Gravity: Interview with Marin Alsop (OTG.1992.04.06)12/29/2023 at 13:28:19