

Thin Air: Interview with Robert Ashley and William Maraldo

Identifier

TA.1969.10.03

Description

Charles Amirkhanian interviews composers Robert Ashley and William Maraldo, who had just been named to co-direct the activities of the Mills Center for Contemporary Music starting September 1969. In addition to describing the origins and upcoming schedule of the Center, this program also includes a discussion by both Ashley and Maraldo about their careers, early influences, and musical works.
