

Player piano rolls, Mexico City, (1977)

Identifier
IM.CA.PC.0051.005

Object Type
Still image

Description
A shelf holding many of the original player piano rolls of Conlon Nancarrow, a composer who used a machine to manually punch holes in the roles to create rapid and complex rhythmic patterns that are largely impossible to play with human hands.

People
Law, Carol (created by)

Related Collection

OMA.COL004.AMI
Charles Amirkhanian Collection